Red Devils Lose First Game, 8-2

Beach Cities handed the Torrance Red Devils an 8-2 loss in the South Bay Connie Mack League Saturday night at Torrance Park.

The Beach boys combined for five runs in the fifth and sixth innings and had a shutout going until the ninth when the Red Devils got their two runs.

Torrance Competes In Soccer

The Torrance Soccer All-Stars rank a 2-goal favorite over Northridge for their second match in the L. A. Coliseum.

Last week Torrance impressed 10,000 Coliseum spectators with passing and positional play in defeating West L.A., 1-0.

Sunday's game kicks off at 1:15 p.m. with the "A. C. Milan" pro team of Italy challenging Mexico's pro champions "America F.C." at 3:00 p.m.

Tickets are $5, reserved, and $3, general.

The Torrance coaching staff has made no significant line-up changes as the All Stars shoot for their third straight victory.

Starting line-up is Mitch Siegel, Keith Watamanuk, David Adair, Kevin May, Siegfried Schmid, Victor Jordan, Joe Gerard, Paul Stierle, Stan Drysdale, Danny Kay and John Briscoe.

In the ninth Larry Snyder hit a bases loaded drive against the fence to score Al Thompson, and Phil Hertzog scored on a fly ball by John Savidan.

Winning pitcher Pete Espinosa gave up five hits in the game. The losing pitcher was Steve Kealey who lasted four and a third innings.

The Red Devils, with a 2-1 record, play the Long Beach Blues at Silverado Park at 1 p.m. Saturday. Sunday's game is against the Westsiders at 2 p.m. at Palisades High.

Tomorrow the Red Devils compete in Los Angeles County League against the San Fernando Giants at Sportsmen's Park at 7:30 p.m.

The Tordena Bullets play the Downey Reds tonight at Alondra Park.

In Connie Mack League play the Bullets have games Saturday at Torrance Park against Westchester at 2 p.m. and Sunday against the Long Beach Blues at 8 p.m.

Wednesday night races at Ascot Stadium. Harry Schooler, track president, has announced the regular Sunday evening Figure 8 races will be held twice weekly during the summer months.

Ascot Park's crowd-pleasing Figure 8 stock cars open their summer-season Wednesday evening programs tonight at 8 p.m. with a full eight-race, 20-lap affair, featuring the fender-busters on the criss-cross Ascot course. Qualifying opens the activities at 6 p.m.

The Wednesday night program adds to the regular Sunday night Figure 8 racefest.

Top favorites in tonight's melee will be last Sunday night's winner, Otto Hayes of Los Angeles; Vernon (Bud Toms), also of L.A.; Ben Steele of Lomita, Leon (Wild Man) Garrett of Lawndale and Bob Queener of Torrance.

Ted Shuster, whose famed "Phone Booth" Model T Ford (powered by a T-Bird engine) was racked up Sunday night in a broadside head-on collision by Nick Thomas of Gardena, hopes to have his car in shape in time for tonight's race.
